

Planet Qaintai – Project Overview

■ Directory Structure

The Planet Qaintai project defines the core structure and conceptual layout of the world hosted at planetqaintai.org.

- `index.html` – Entry point, leading to `handbook.html` or main gateway
- `handbook.html` – Typewriter intro + timed popup, 'click anywhere' to continue
- `book1.html` – Zone selection: The F1elds, Be1-ng, Parad1ze
- `f1elds.html` – Zone representing memory and consciousness
- `be1ng.html` – Zone representing inner being and identity
- `parad1ze.html` – The mythical physical core, unreachable or disputed
- `css/style.css` – Shared global styling across all pages
- `media/img/` – Contains `qlogo.png`, `logo.png`, `planet.png` and other assets
- `.well-known/gpc.json` – GPC compliance file for privacy preferences

■ Page Elements & Interactions

• `handbook.html` displays an automatic popup after 7 seconds and continues on click. • `book1.html` presents three selectable green-framed blocks linking to each zone. • All pages use `style.css` to maintain visual consistency.

■ SEO and Social Metadata Example (`book1.html`)

■ Lore Tags

- "1 may or has entered the physical form of Qaintai"
- "The F1elds" → consciousness network
- "Be1-ng" → inner experience of identity
- "Parad1ze" → physical origin, mysterious and unreachable

■ Deployment

The project is designed for deployment via Cloudflare Pages using a GitHub repository. Example repository URL: [https://github.com/\[yourname\]/planetqaintai](https://github.com/[yourname]/planetqaintai)

■ Purpose

Planet Qaintai represents a digital and mythological world divided into three primary zones: • F1elds — The network of memory and consciousness. • Be1-ng — The internal existence and experience of individual entities. • Parad1ze — The mythical physical source, the heart of Qaintai. All pages, visuals, and texts contribute to exploring identity, memory, and emergence within this fictional planetary system.
